

AMENDMENT AND ADDENDUM TO OPERATING AGREEMENT
NORTH AMERICAN CONSORTIUM ON LEGAL EDUCATION

WHEREAS on or about June 16, 1999 the undersigned universities ("Consortium Members" or "Members") entered into that certain document entitled "Operating Agreement – North American Consortium on Legal Education" ("Agreement") setting forth the appropriate structures and procedures to carry out the goals of the Consortium;

WHEREAS the Consortium has been awarded a tri-government grant from the governments of Canada, Mexico and the United States ("Grant");

WHEREAS a condition of the Grant is a formal agreement among the Consortium Members concerning the payment of tuition by visiting students and the transfer of credits and grades;

WHEREAS the Consortium Members desire to amend the Agreement to comport with the conditions imposed by the Grant:

NOW THEREFORE, the Consortium Members enter into this Amendment and Addendum to the Agreement as follows:

Article III A.4. of the Agreement is amended to provide as follows:

4. In compliance with paragraph 3 above, each Member shall endeavor to promote scholarship opportunities. Each Member agrees that student exchanges pursuant to the Agreement will be made on a "home tuition" basis. "Home tuition" means that a visiting student will pay to his home university all usual tuition charges and fees (including tuition, registration, examinations, and use of library and laboratory facilities). The visiting student will not incur any additional payments to the host university, save and except any lodging, visa or insurance costs, if applicable.

Article III.A.10 is added to the Agreement as follows:

10. A visiting student shall receive a grade from the host university for each course taken by the visiting student. The credit hours for each course will be accepted by the home university provided the student has received a grade of "C" or higher in a graded course or a grade of " Pass" in a pass/fail course. The grades earned by the visiting student at the host university will not be calculated as part of the student's grade point average at his home university.

This document is executed in multiple original counterparts and each such Amendment and Addendum to Operating Agreement North American Consortium on Legal Education shall serve as an original for all purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Members have caused their fully authorized representatives to execute this Amendment and Addendum.
